

www.returntoanatolia.org

RETURN TO ANATOLIA

2 pm, Saturday
13TH of June 2009

Jika International Conference Centre
551 Heidelberg Road
Fairfield
Victoria 3078

Proudly Supported by:

VICTORIAN multicultural commission

MELISSA CAKES

2009

Dont' miss this opportunity to attend the third annual "Return to Anatolia" conference.

A joint program of the Assyrian, Hellenic Pontian and Armenian communities whose similar Historic fate and cultural ties allows for an in depth cultural dialogue.

The Endurance of Children

Children of Anatolia - victims, survivors, guardians of hope

Speakers :

Mr Henri Korn

Child survivor of the Holocaust at the age of 15 years old
President of the Melbourne Child Survivors of the Holocaust, Melbourne

Melissa Brickell

A descendant of the Yorta Yorta and Wiradjeri peoples. Melissa has a high profile involvement in the Stolen Generations movement in Victoria and nationally, working tirelessly towards an Apology year in year out organising the Sorry Day events, and advocating for the implementation of the Bringing them home (HREOC 1997) Report, at state and national levels
Melissa has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education (1988), Catechist Diploma (1997), Rite of Christian Initiation Adults Certificate (1997); Certificate IV in Workplace Training & Assessment; a deferred Masters of Arts in Aboriginal Studies

Dr Panayiotis Diamadis

Bachelor of Arts, Diploma in Secondary Education, Master of Arts, Doctor of Philosophy Senior history teacher at St Andrew's Cathedral School in Sydney, Lecturer in Genocide Studies, Sydney Tutor at the Workers' Education Association Sydney

Nicholas Al-Jeloo

An Australian scholar of Assyrian heritage, and is currently a PhD candidate in Syriac Studies at the University of Sydney. He is a co-author of the Modern Aramaic (Assyrian/Syriac) Phrasebook and Dictionary (2007), and has conducted numerous fieldwork expeditions amongst Assyrian communities in Iran, Iraq, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon and Jordan since 2002